

I planned out my future a long time ago,
I'll be big, not gonna stay low,
Being a performer is my dream,
My thoughts are breaking at the seem,
.Life-Anxiety + Problems that humans face!!!
.Music
.Is God real?

- . Hands Shake
- . Spots everywhere
- . Made up situations
- . Feel you're going to faint
- . Stressed

I feel frustrated and frightened about this topic, as I face it.

My throat's clogged up, my head's spinning, heart's racing,

Body rocking, hands shaking,
Coloured Spots everywhere,
This anxiety doesn't have any emotion to care,
Everybody can't help but stare.

- Reality isn't the same as a dream ✓
- Things are harder than it sounds
- There's no shortcuts in life
 - realized you have to work hard to get what you want
 - Recently realized there are no shorts
- Not everyone will always be with there for you
- You won't be successful if you don't try.

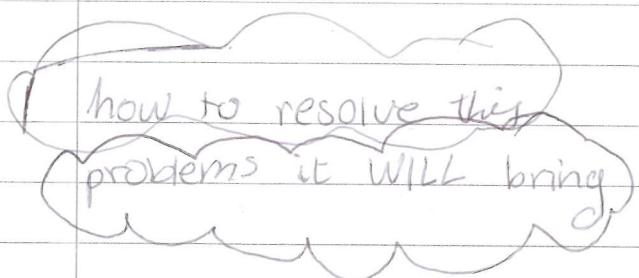

~~Reality isn't the same as a dream I didn't notice that until I saw covid-19~~

Reality isn't the same as a dream
I noticed that when I saw covid-19 there are no shortcuts in life
you have to work hard if you want to pass through the nice you have to work hard ~~if you want to buy~~ ~~if you want to buy a bike~~
you have to work hard ~~if you want to be successful in life~~
~~success in life~~

How unfair the world is - racism, sexism *

Racism is never okay,
Racism can go away!

One day you need to face REAL problems,
But sometimes theres no way to solve em, people go through things no one should ever ~~go through~~, sexism, racism? When do we use it? NEVER, colour of your skin should never be a race,
no one will ever come first place,

One day a ~~farmer~~ shepherd, who had lost his sheep prized sheep ~~else~~ ^{4 days ago} even, was herding all his sheep into a pen. He locked the slightly weather-torn gate and set out once more in search of his missing sheep.

He walked and walked, his feet sore, he had checked every place twice except one ~~in~~ & the ~~greatest~~ burrow of the fox-people. He had seen them several times, changing back and forth from foxes to people. The shepherd had told people about them, but as he was known as the boy who cried wolf, nobody believed him.

He ~~sneak~~ walked over to the burrow and hid, so they could not see him. ~~Many~~ A large group About 10 ~~fox~~ people came out of the burrow and as they when the shepherd blinked, they were people. They abandoned their fox-coats on some rocks, and forgetting all about his even, the shepherd picked it up. Now they had to believe him.

Artemis
Goddess of hunting

Catch fish on boats

Hunt animals for us to eat & seller of food

I went for a normal jog at the park, it was dark, very dark maybe I went to early. Well, the jog became more than what it seemed, weird, scary, frightening none of this a word called mysterious, I wondered in my mind, my huge mind where seconds could tell me the answer, so I decided to check it out. I deepened my way into the forest, until an arrow shot by my eyesight, nothing in the world could shock me more, I saw Artemis, Goddess of hunting.

Artemis, Goddess of hunting. I cannot believe what just happened to my life, this was unexpected. I wondered for the whole day asking questions about my mind memory that remembered this. So I decided to wait till tomorrow and find Artemis again. The next day, 8:45 A.M. I discovered into the forest, seeing if my mind was sleepy or tired or was I just crazy, so my mind resulted me to go in the forest, 8:50 A.M. Still no sign, I decided to get up and start to go back to where I came, suddenly I heard footsteps coming, so I crouched immediately with no second to spare. Artemis was here, it was like he was hunting or delivering food to companies, maybe being scared a little scared was not necessary, he was helping this whole time. I was surprised by the discovery of what I saw.
